

Education Bureau

Depository of Curriculum-based Learning and Teaching Resources

Introduction

The Education Bureau is developing an on-line Depository of Curriculum-based Learning and Teaching Resources which aims to:

- Provide appropriate e-learning resources with practical advice to teachers;
- Reduce the burden of teachers in sourcing and preparing learning resources;
- Let teachers further integrate IT into learning and teaching; and
- Enable teachers to use right technology at the right time for the right task so as to enhance the effectiveness of learning and teaching.

The first phase of development focuses on Chinese Language, English Language, Mathematics and General Studies at primary level. Resources are being progressively uploaded for teachers' use at:
