

Direct Subsidy Scheme
Explanatory Notes for Primary Schools

When considering whether their schools should join the Scheme, supervisors of aided primary schools are advised to note the implications of the arrangements as listed at Notes for Aided Primary Schools on the operation of their schools and the fringe benefits of their teachers upon turning into a Direct Subsidy Scheme school.

P/S Section 1	Background Information on the Direct Subsidy Scheme
P/S Section 2	Criteria and Conditions for Admission of Aided Primary Schools to the Direct Subsidy Scheme
P/S Section 3	Proposed School Plan and Other Information Required from Applicant Schools
P/S Section 4	Government Subsidy for Direct Subsidy Scheme Primary Schools
P/S Section 5	Accounting Arrangements and Spending Abuses of Direct Subsidy Scheme Primary Schools Annex – List of Approved Items of Expenditure for the Direct Subsidy Scheme Government Subsidy
P/S Section 6	Basic Standards which Direct Subsidy Scheme Primary Schools are Required to Maintain
P/S Section 7	Entrance Examination and Curricula of Direct Subsidy Scheme Primary Schools
P/S Section 8	Administrative Procedures for Admission to Primary One of Direct Subsidy Scheme Primary Schools
P/S Section 9	Transitional Period
P/S Section 10	Prospectuses of Direct Subsidy Scheme Primary Schools
P/S Section 11	Control and Monitoring Mechanism for Direct Subsidy Scheme Primary Schools