

Additional Remarks on Teacher Training

Posting Date: 2 June 2004

Any recognized teacher training with specialism in Chinese/ English language and supervised practicum in Chinese/ English language teaching is considered relevant in meeting SCOLAR requirements on teacher training. Initial teacher training obtained before September 2000 is recognized for meeting SCOLAR requirements on teacher training regardless of the subject of specialism whilst initial teacher training obtained in or after September 2000 must be one with specialism in Chinese/ English language.
