

Guidance Notes on Application for Mainland University Study Subsidy Scheme 2022/23

1. Mainland University Study Subsidy Scheme

The Mainland University Study Subsidy Scheme (MUSSS) aims to support Hong Kong students in pursuing undergraduate studies on the Mainland and ensure that no students will be deprived of post-secondary education opportunity due to a lack of means. The MUSSS comprises two components: “means-tested subsidy” (eligible students who have passed a means test will receive either a full-rate subsidy or a half-rate subsidy, depending on their needs) and “non-means-tested subsidy”. The subsidy is granted on a yearly basis. The subsidised period is the normal duration of the undergraduate programme pursued by the student concerned in a designated Mainland institution. Eligible applicants can only receive either a means-tested subsidy or a non-means-tested subsidy in a given academic year. The MUSSS is not subject to any quota.

For the 2022/23 academic year, there are 191 designated Mainland institutions (see Attachment I), including 129 institutions participating in the 2022/23 Scheme for Admission of Hong Kong Students to Mainland Higher Education Institutions. The subsidy amounts will be announced in due course.

The MUSSS is administered by the Education Bureau (EDB) of the HKSAR Government. The Student Finance Office (SFO) under the Working Family and Student Financial Assistance Agency is responsible for conducting means tests for families applying for the “means-tested subsidy”, while an agency appointed by the EDB assists in verifying students’ admission status, disbursing subsidy, etc.. The subsidy is granted on a yearly basis until the end of the normal duration of the undergraduate programme pursued by the student concerned in a designated Mainland institution.

2. Eligibility

The EDB will verify and confirm whether or not an applicant meets the eligibility criteria stated below according to the information entered in the application form and provided by the applicant:

“Means-tested subsidy”

Students meeting the following criteria may apply for the “means-tested subsidy” for the 2022/23 academic year:

- (a) having right of abode* or right to land in, or have entered Hong Kong on One-way Permits;
- (b) having received and completed senior secondary education in Hong Kong; and
- (c) pursuing undergraduate studies in any of the 191 designated Mainland institutions listed in Attachment I in the 2022/23 academic year.

A student who is expected to receive his/her right of abode within the 2022/23 academic year may also apply.*

“Non-means-tested subsidy”

Students meeting the following criteria may apply for the “non-means-tested subsidy” for the 2022/23 academic year:

- (a) having right of abode or right* to land in, or have entered Hong Kong on One-way Permits*;
- (b) having received and completed senior secondary education in Hong Kong;
- (c) pursuing undergraduate studies in any of the 191 designated Mainland institutions listed in Attachment I in the 2022/23 academic year; and
- (d)(1) attained “3322” in the Hong Kong Diploma of Secondary Education (HKDSE) Examination, i.e. attained Level 3 for Chinese Language and English Language and Level 2 for Mathematics and Liberal Studies; OR
- (d)(2) pursuing studies in Huaqiao University through “Pilot Scheme on the Articulation of Hong Kong Sub-degree Graduates to Huaqiao University” ; OR
- (d)(3) admitted to a Mainland institution through the School Principal Nomination Scheme under the Scheme for Admission of Hong Kong Students to Mainland Higher Education Institutions.

A student who is expected to receive his/her right of abode within the 2022/23 academic year may also apply.*

All eligible students may submit application for the MUSSS, subject to the following definition of “applicant”:

1. Students aged 18 or above shall be deemed “the applicant”.
2. For students aged under 18, their father/mother/guardian shall act as “the applicant”.

3. Means test (applicable to the “means-tested subsidy”)

3.1 Applicants of the “means-tested subsidy” are subject to a means test. The SFO is responsible for conducting the means test for the families of the “means-tested subsidy” applicants and submitting reports to the EDB on the financial position of the families concerned. The means test takes into account family income but not assets.

3.2 Assessment method and level of subsidy

1. The SFO uses the “Adjusted Family Income” (AFI) mechanism to conduct the means test so as to assess the eligibility of a student and his/her level of subsidy under the MUSSS.
2. The AFI mechanism adopts the following formula:

$$\text{AFI} = \frac{\text{Gross annual income of the family}}{\text{Number of family members} + (1)}$$

3. Gross annual income of the family includes the annual income of the student’s father, mother or guardian and his/her spouse; 30% of the annual income of unmarried sibling(s) residing with the parent(s) of the student (if applicable); and the contribution from relatives/friends (if applicable).
4. Members of a family normally refer to the student, the student’s father/mother or guardian and his/her spouse, the unmarried sibling(s) residing with the parent(s) of the student, and the dependent grandparent(s) of the student.
5. For single-parent families of 2 to 3 members, the “plus 1” factor in the divisor of AFI formula will be increased to 2.
6. Since the means test is on a household basis, the members and composition of the student’s family will directly affect the AFI of the student. If the unmarried child/children residing with the parent(s)/guardian of the student as named in Part II of the Means Test Assessment Form (M2) is/are not the parent(s)/guardian’s biological child/children, explanation must be provided separately when submitting the application.

7. Eligibility and level of subsidy

The AFI eligibility benchmarks for various levels of subsidy in the 2022/23 academic year are listed in the table below (please note that the AFI is not the average monthly income of a family).

2022/23 academic year – AFI Groups between($)	Level of subsidy
0 – 42,559	Full *
42,560– 82,295	Half
> 82,295	Ineligible (unsuccessful application)

* The AFI thresholds for full-rate subsidy for 3 and 4-member families are $51,523 and $47,402 respectively in the 2022/23 academic year. For 2 and 3-member single-parent families, they are regarded as 3 and 4-member families respectively for determining the AFI thresholds for full-rate subsidy and calculation of the AFI (see Examples 1–3 below).

Example 1: 3-member families and 2-member single-parent families

2022/23 academic year – AFI Groups between($)	Level of subsidy
0 – 51,523	Full
51,524– 82,295	Half
> 82,295	Ineligible (unsuccessful application)

Example 2: 4-member families and 3-member single-parent families

2022/23 academic year – AFI Groups between($)	Level of subsidy
0 – 47,402	Full
47,403 – 82,295	Half
> 82,295	Ineligible (unsuccessful application)

Example 3: General (Except 3 and 4-member families, and 2 and 3-member single-parent families set out in Examples 1 and 2 above)

2022/23 academic year – AFI Groups between($)	Level of subsidy
0 – 42,559	Full
42,560– 82,295	Half
> 82,295	Ineligible (unsuccessful application)

8. Assessment procedures

The SFO will assess the financial position of the family based on the information provided by the father/mother or guardian of the student, and if necessary, reference will be made to the information provided by the father/mother or guardian of the student when applying for other financial assistance schemes administered by the SFO. Generally, if the student is assessed as eligible for full/half subsidy according to the AFI, and it has been verified and confirmed that he/she meets the eligibility criteria stated in Paragraph 2 above, he/she shall be eligible for the subsidy under the MUSSS. The SFO will submit an assessment report to the EDB setting out the eligibility and the level of subsidy to be granted to a student based on the results of the means test. The EDB appointed agency will then verify the student's admission information with the Mainland institution concerned. Disbursement of the subsidy to eligible students through the EDB appointed agency is subject to the EDB's final approval.

4. Approval and disbursement of subsidy

The EDB appointed agency will verify the student's admission information with the Mainland institution concerned. Subject to the EDB's final assessment, disbursement of subsidy to eligible students would be made through the EDB appointed agency. The EDB reserves the right of final decision on matters relating to subsidy disbursement and approval of renewal applications.

5. Provision/handling of personal data

- 5.1 It is the responsibility of the student/applicant to complete the application form fully and truthfully and provide all supporting documents to facilitate the assessment of his/her eligibility and the level of subsidy to be granted based on the information therein by the EDB/SFO/EDB appointed agency. Insufficient information / misrepresentation of facts / providing false and misleading information will render the application processing deferred or application disqualified for further processing. The EDB/SFO/EDB appointed agency may require the student/applicant to provide additional information for verification if necessary.
- 5.2 The personal data provided by the student/applicant in the application form will be used by the EDB for one or more of the following purposes:
- Activities relating to the processing, authentication and assessment on eligibility and counter-checking of the application for subsidies;
 - Activities relating to matching of the personal data with the database of other relevant Government bureaux/departments or designated Mainland institutions in connection with the processing, authentication, assessment on eligibility and counter-checking of the application mentioned in (a) above;
 - Activities relating to matching of the personal data within the database of the EDB for purposes of verifying/updating records of the EDB; and
 - Activities relating to compilation of statistics, research and Government publications.
- 5.3 The provision of personal data required by the application form and during the processing of the application form is obligatory. In the event that the student/applicant does not provide those personal data, the EDB may not be able to handle or further process the application.
- 5.4 The personal data the student/applicant provides will be made available to persons working in the EDB. Apart from this, they may be transferred or disclosed to the parties or in the circumstances listed below:-
- other Government bureau and departments, including the Student Finance Office and Social Welfare Department, for the purposes mentioned in paragraph 5.2 above;
 - the school in which the form relates for the purposes mentioned in paragraph 5.2 above;
 - personnel, agent, service provider or organizations, including the EDB appointed agency and designated Mainland institutions, engaged by the EDB to provide services or advice for purposes mentioned in paragraph 5.2 above;
 - where the student/applicant has given his/her prescribed consent to such disclosure; and
 - where such disclosure is authorised or required under the law or court order applicable to Hong Kong.
- 5.5 The student/applicant has the right to request access to and correction of his/her personal data held by the EDB. Request for access or correction of personal data should be made in writing to Higher Education Division (Wan Chai Office), Education Bureau at P.O. Box No. 23448, Wan Chai Post Office or email to musss@edb.gov.hk.

6. Application procedures, points to note and disbursement of subsidy

- 6.1 Application Form for Mainland University Study Subsidy Scheme (M1), Means Test Assessment Form (M2), Guidance Notes (M3) and the relevant attachments can be downloaded from the EDB website (www.edb.gov.hk/musss) and SFO website (www.wfsfaa.gov.hk/sfo/en/forms/listing3.htm).
- 6.2 Applicants should read the Guidance Notes carefully before completing the application form. Eligible students are required to submit their applications via the MUSSS Electronic Application Platform (<https://musss.edb.gov.hk/>) or send the completed application forms by post to Education Bureau, P.O. Box 23448, Wan Chai Post Office, Hong Kong (please specify “Application for the MUSSS”) on or before 30 September 2022.
- 6.3 It is expected that the EDB/EDB appointed agency will notify the applicants of the results of their applications by phases by the first quarter of 2023. For successful applications, the subsidy will be disbursed by direct transfer to the bank account stated in Part I of the application form. The EDB will process applications received on a first-come-first-served basis.

- 6.4 Eligible students applying for the “means-tested subsidy” are subject to a means test only at the time of first application, and will not be required to undergo means test annually during the normal duration of their undergraduate studies, unless there are substantial changes in their family circumstances that warrant a reassessment. Students only have to declare in writing annually that there are no substantial changes in their family circumstances to continue to receive the subsidy based on their previously approved eligibility and levels of subsidy until the end of the normal duration of their undergraduate studies in designated Mainland institutions. To verify the truthfulness and completeness of the information provided by the students, the EDB/SFO will conduct random checks on some of the successful applications every year. The EDB/SFO staff may seek clarifications of the application data or request additional information from the father/mother/guardian of the student to verify his/her eligibility or level of subsidy. They may also examine the originals of all supporting documents. It is the responsibility of the father/mother/guardian of the student to retain all supporting documents of the application for at least two years, and cooperate with the EDB/SFO staff. Intentional obstruction to the EDB/SFO staff during verification, concealment of information, or failure to provide the information required will lead to restitution in full of the subsidy granted and possible prosecution.
- 6.5 Eligible students applying for the “non-means-tested subsidy” are required to submit their applications once only during the normal duration of their undergraduate studies. Students have to declare in writing annually thereafter that there is no change in their study status and that they wish to continue to receive the subsidy for them to keep the subsidy until the end of the normal duration of their undergraduate studies in designated Mainland institutions.
- 6.6 If a student receiving the subsidy fails to complete his/her undergraduate study within the normal duration of the programme concerned, the EDB will generally not subsidise the length of study beyond the normal duration. Nevertheless, the EDB will consider, on a case-by-case basis, the provision of subsidy for the length of study beyond the normal duration if the student extends his/her duration of study under special circumstances. Besides, the EDB has the right to withhold/deduct/limit the amount of subsidy to be granted to the student for a given year, and require a refund to the HKSAR Government in full/in part/the overpaid amount of the subsidy granted within the specified time limit if during the duration of study the student:
- (a) has been suspended/expelled by the institution or has withdrawn from study;
 - (b) has been transferred to a non-designated Mainland institution;
 - (c) has lost the right of abode or the right to land in Hong Kong;
 - (d) is no longer eligible for the subsidy or the level of subsidy as assessed by the means test (applicable to those receiving the “means-tested subsidy”); or
 - (e) has failed to meet other eligibility criteria under the MUSSS.

Under any of the above circumstances, the EDB reserves the right to decide ultimately whether or not to continue subsidising the student concerned under the MUSSS.

Our general principles on refund of the overpaid amount of the subsidy granted are that for cases related to (a), if the recipient has already studied for three months or more in the concerned academic year, favourable consideration would be given to waive the refund, subject to reasonable justifications put up by the student. If refund is requested, any paid and non-refundable tuition fees and hostel fees may be deducted from the amount to be refunded; for other cases, action will be taken to require refund in full or in part (as appropriate) of the subsidy granted as a general rule, save for very exceptional circumstances which will only be considered on a case-by-case basis.
