ApL is a valued senior secondary elective subject which complements other senior secondary subjects to form a flexible subject combination that helps enrich students' subject choices and cater for learner diversity, providing broad and balanced learning experiences for students. ApL focuses on practical learning elements linked to vocational and professional fields with dual emphasis on theory and practice. It develops students' knowledge, generic skills, proper values and attitudes through simulated or authentic contexts, as well as deepens students' understanding of vocational and professional education and training (VPET), preparing them for further studies and work in future.

Application for ApL Courses

Students MUST apply through their schools. In general, each student can take a maximum of two ApL courses as elective subjects throughout his/her studies at the senior secondary level (NCS students meeting specified circumstances can in addition take one ApL(C) course). EDB will fully subsidise eligible students² to pay the course fees.

Regarding the 2027-29 cohort (i.e. the cohort of students sitting the 2029 Hong Kong Diploma of Secondary Education (HKDSE)), there are a total of 55 ApL courses, covering six Areas of Studies, namely Creative Studies; Media and Communication; Business, Management and Law; Services; Applied Science; and Engineering and Production. In addition, Applied Learning Chinese (for non-Chinese speaking students) (ApL(C)) is provided exclusively for non-Chinese speaking (NCS) students meeting specified circumstances¹. The duration of each ApL course (except ApL(C)) is 180 contact hours, generally spanning two school years at the senior secondary level, commencing either at Secondary 4 (S4) (complete at Secondary 5 (S5)) or S5 (complete at Secondary 6 (S6)). The duration of each ApL(C) course is 270 contact hours, spanning S4 to S6.

² Students in aided secondary schools (including special schools with senior secondary classes), government secondary schools, caput schools and Direct Subsidy Scheme secondary schools studying the senior secondary curriculum prepared by the Curriculum Development Council and published for use in schools by the Education Bureau (EDB) will be fully subsidised by EDB to take ApL courses.

Recognition

ApL courses (2027-29 Cohort) are Category B subjects of the 2029 Hong Kong Diploma of Secondary Education Examination (HKDSE). The results for students' performance in ApL subjects (except for ApL(C)) are reported in three levels:

Attained with Distinction (II)

Attained with Distinction (I)

Attained

Performance of "Attained with Distinction (I)" is deemed comparable to Level 3 of Category A subjects of the HKDSE; and "Attained with Distinction (II)" is deemed comparable to Level 4 or above of Category A subjects of the HKDSE. As for ApL(C), students' performance is reported as "Attained" and "Attained with Distinction".

In addition to the HKDSE qualification, students who have successfully completed ApL courses that are registered in the Qualifications Register (as certificate programmes at Qualifications Framework (QF) Level 3), will obtain QF certificates issued by the course providers. Details are available at the Qualifications Register website (www.hkqr.gov.hk).

Further Studies

Undergraduate Programmes: Student admission in post-secondary institutions has followed the principle of institutional autonomy. For further studies in undergraduate programmes, institutions value the learning experiences that students acquire in ApL. ApL subjects are recognised as elective subjects, or considered for award of extra bonus or as additional information, varying by individual institutions, faculties or programmes.

Sub-degree Programmes: The minimum entrance requirements for Associate Degree or Higher Diploma Programmes are Level 2 in five HKDSE subjects (including Chinese Language and English Language), applicants may use results of ApL subjects in this connection.

ApL(C) provides NCS students with an additional channel to obtain an alternative Chinese Language qualification. Currently, University Grants Committee-funded universities and most post-secondary institutions accept ApL(C) as an alternative qualification in Chinese Language for the admission of NCS students with "Attained" as the minimum grade required. For details, please refer to the relevant websites of individual institutions or EDB website (www.edb.gov.hk/apl/en/quality-assurance-and-recognition).

Employment

The Civil Service Bureau (CSB) accepts students' ApL results in the HKDSE (including "Attained" and "Attained with Distinction", up to a maximum of 2 ApL subjects) in civil service appointments. For details, please refer to the CSB website (www.csb.gov.hk/english/info/2170.html).

The CSB also accepts "Attained" and "Attained with Distinction" in ApL(C) as meeting the Chinese language proficiency requirements of relevant civil service ranks. For details, please also refer to the CSB website (www.csb.gov.hk/english/admin/appoint/35.html).
