Teachers can use the worksheet for students’ self-learning to enhance their understanding of the origin of the significant historical figures in national history.

Teachers can use the slides for classroom learning and teaching to cultivate students’ sense of nationhood and national identity.
c.	“Primary Humanities: Enhancing Learning in National History and Chinese Culture” Short Video The short video shows how schools promote the learning of national history and Chinese culture within and beyond the classroom through diversified learning activities and reading across the curriculum related to Primary Humanities, so as to enhance students’ interest in learning national history and encourage them to learn to appreciate and preserve Chinese culture, as well as to enhance their national identity.
