P.2	Once upon a time, it was said that drinking water collected from the top of this treacherous mountain would grant anyone success.
P.4	A brave adventurer, skeptical of this rumour, began his journey up the mountain.
P.5	He encountered countless hurdles,
P.6	snowstorms, hurricanes...
P.7	/
P.8	Nevertheless, he didn't give up.
P.9	When he finally got to taste the water,
P.10	he realised there was nothing special about it.
P.11	But he didn't feel dissatisfied,
P.12	instead he felt grateful that he endured his journey, for the bliss he felt gazing at the view from above was much more valuable than the magical water.
