Heart-shaped and flower cutouts
x 10 sheets (A4 size)

“Seeds of Love: A Blossoming Garden of Growth” Poster

How to use the poster?

Distribute the cutouts (e.g. heart shape, flower shape or other design) to students, staff members of the school and parents for writing their thoughts and reflections on “love and growth” (e.g. expressing gratitude/wishes, sharing personal goals, drawing pictures/sticking photos which capture special moments of love and growth).

Invite students to design the “Garden” by affixing the cutouts on the poster and display it in the school to spread the positive vibes.

Make creative use of the poster (e.g. invite students to reply to a message on the poster, vote for the most inspiring/creative/touching message on the poster) to maximise the positive impacts of the Week of Love and Growth.

Examples of writing prompts for the cutouts

Love messages

- Write a love note to classmates, teaching or non-teaching staff at school to express gratitude on how they have helped one grow and feel loved.

Hannah,
I am so grateful to have you as my BFF! Thank you for supporting me always and sharing my ups and downs unconditionally!

Laura 😊

Dear Ms Chan,
Thank you for always making the lesson fun and inspiring. I have learnt a lot from you!

1A John Ho

Dear 5B students, It's a pleasure to be your English teacher and I am happy that all of you are attentive and responsive in lessons. Let's work hard together on your HKDSE journey!

Mr Li

Fong Jie,
Thank you for keeping the classroom clean and tidy every day
so that I can have a wonderful learning environment!
