Teaching Procedures

1. Presenting the book
   - Display the book cover and say: What can you see in this picture? Which season is it? How do you know that?
   - Guide pps to say: The sun is... (hot).
   - Read aloud the book title and the name of the author. Say: The title of book is Watching the Weather. When the sun is hot, it is... (summer).
   - Invite individual pupils to apply their book knowledge. Say: Tell me something about the book?
   - Pupils read aloud the book title and name of the author.
   - Encourage pps to use Activity Sheet 1 and “Watching the autumn weather” to recap what they have read in the previous session.

2. Reading and responding to the book
   - Turn to the contents page and say: Can you read the contents table? So this book is about watching the... (autumn/winter/spring/summer) weather.
   - Write: Watching the ___ weather on bb and invite predictions from pps.
   - Draw pupils’ attention to the pictures and say: What can we see in the four seasons? Look at these pictures and tell me. Elicit from pps and write “autumn – leaves; winter – snow; spring – flowers; summer – hot sun” on bb.
   - Discuss the background of the book. Say: Is this book about Hong Kong? Can you see snow in the winter here? No, it is about watching the weather in Australia.
   - Display the picture of a kangaroo and a world map. Say: A kangaroo lives in Australia. It is here... far away from Hong Kong. Share learning intention with pupils. Say: We are going to read this book and learn to watch the weather in Australia.
   - Help pps recognize the sequence of the four seasons in Australia. Say: Why is the first season autumn? In Australia, it is autumn in January.
   - Make use of Activity Sheet 1 to help pps find out relevant information about “Watching the winter weather” from the book. Say: What can we see in winter? We can see ___. Yes, ice and snow, melting snow. The temperature is 1 °C, 10°C.
   - Explain vocabulary when necessary. Make use of the pictorial clues available in the book as much as possible.
   - Complete other parts of Activity Sheet 1.
   - Ask pupils which season they like best in Australia and why.
   - Introduce the weather chart and how the temperature changes in the four seasons in Australia.
pp.2-5
- Write: We can see ___ in ___. on bb and set the while-reading task.
  - Say: Now read pp.2-5 and find out what we can see in autumn in Australia. Leaves, right, but what are the leaves like in autumn?
- Pps read pp.2-5 silently. Elicit from pps “leaves changing colours, leaves falling” to record on bb.
- Guide pps to make use of the pictorial clues on pp.2-5. Say: Look at the leaves. How are the colours changing? Yes, from green to red or yellow. Where are the leaves? Yes, falling on the ground.
- Guide pupils to watch other features of autumn. Say: What is the weather like in autumn? Cool, but can we watch it? No, but we can tell the temperature from a thermometer. On which page can we see a thermometer?
- Write the words “thermometer, temperature” on bb and help pps read them by cutting each word into syllables.
- Teach pupils how to read 12°C, using the information from the thermometer.
- Share read pp.2-5 with pps.

3. Re-reading and interacting with the book
- Distribute Activity Sheet 1. Pps read pp.2-5 again to record what they can see in autumn in Australia.
- Pps are encouraged to think how to change it to what they can see in autumn in Hong Kong.
- Distribute Activity Sheet 2. Pps work in groups to record what they can see in the four seasons in Hong Kong.

children? What are the children doing? What are the children playing with? Yes, beach ball. They are playing in water. Do you like playing in water? Why? We say, “It is fun to play in water.”

- Distribute sentence strips and ask pupils to work in pairs and write down other activities to complete the sentence “It is fun to…” Pupils present their ideas orally. Display the sentence strips in the classroom.

- Pupils read aloud p.2 together.

pp.4-5

- Set the pre-reading question. Say: Where can you play in water? Tell me some good places. Write pupils’ prediction on the blackboard.
- Pupils read the first sentence on p.4 silently to confirm their predictions.
- Say: You should go to the pool with two people. Who are they? Why?
- Use the picture on p.5 to explain “teach you to swim.”
- Draw pupils’ attention to the word “some” on p.8 and guide them to recognise that some waves are big but some are little. Conclude that not all places on the beach are safe to swim in. Only places with little waves are safe.
- Guide pupils to answer the question on p.8. They look at the picture on p.9. Point to the safe and dangerous places at the beach and explain why. Conclude that it is safe to swim near the sand because the waves are little.
- Ask pupils to read aloud p.8.

pp.8-9

- Display the picture of a boy swimming in the swimming pool safely. Say: Look at this boy. He is… It is safe.
- Set the pre-reading question. Point to the 3 words on the board and say: We have just read that the river is dangerous. Which place is safe to swim in? Let’s read p.8 silently.
- Draw pupils’ attention to the word “some” on p.8 and guide them to recognise that some waves are big but some are little. Conclude that not all places on the beach are safe to swim in. Only places with little waves are safe.
- Guide pupils to answer the question on p.8. They look at the picture on p.9. Point to the safe and dangerous places at the beach and explain why. Conclude that it is safe to swim near the sand because the waves are little.
- Ask pupils to read aloud p.8.

pp.10-12

- Pupils read p.6 silently to confirm their predictions.
- Display the picture of a river. Say: It is dangerous to play/swim in the river. Why?
- Help pupils understand the structure “too…to” by breaking it up into two short sentences: The river is dangerous. Boys and girls cannot swim in it.
- Pupils read aloud p.6 together.

pp.13-14

- Write: in the hot sun, hat, sunblock lotion on bb.
- Discuss the picture on p.13.
- Introduce the word “sunburn” and show realia or pictures of products that protect us from sunburn (e.g. suntan lotion, sunblock lotion, sunscreen lotion). Find out the most popular products among the pupils.
- Ask pupils to relate to their personal experience and share how they protect themselves while playing in the hot sun.
- Pupils read aloud p.14 together.

Phonics - Long a with Magic e

- Refer pupils to the word “shade” on blackboard. Underline “a” and “e”. Teach pupils to read “ade”. Write “a e” on the board and ask pupils to find 2 words with this spelling from the book. (waves, safe)
- Put the three words vertically on the board with “a” and “e” in the same position. Draw lines to help pupils focus on the letters “a” and “e”. Teach pupils that they should read these 2 letters as “a”.
- Optional: The letter “e” is called “Magic e” because it changes the letter sound from Short a to Long a.
- Demonstrate how to read the words when the vowel sound is changed, e.g. nam /name/, cak /cake/, at /a/.

  - Go with your mum and dad.
  - Swim at beaches with little waves.
- Pupils tick the pictures which show how the parents look after their children at the pool.
- Homework: Activity Sheet 2.
- Group work: Pupils match some cards on opposites:
  - safe/dangerous
  - hot/cold
  - sunny/rainy
  - put on/take off
  - big/little
  - can/cannot
  - good/bad
  - dry/wet
  - and compile a small book on opposites.
- Homework: Pupils make their own small books on opposites.
Learning/Teaching Objectives
- Identifying the title of a poem and the name of the poet
- Recognizing rhythm and rhymes in a poem
- Vocabulary: everywhere, daisy, plain, chain
- Identifying the stressed syllables
- Identifying the rhyming words: there, everywhere, Jane, again, plain, chain
- Phonics: Long a as in chain.

Teaching Procedures

Introducing the poem
- Display a poster on flowers and a bag with a daisy inside.
- Pupils guess which flower is in the bag by pointing to the flowers in the poster.
- Introduce the name of the flower - daisy.
- Share learning intention with pupils. Say: We are going to learn the rhythm and rhymes in a poem.
- Remind pupils of other poems they have learnt.

First reading
- Read aloud the poem.
- Pupils listen carefully and pay attention to the rhythm in reading a poem.
- Display the poem sheet.
- Pupils identify the title and the name of the poet. Explain that the poet wrote the poem "Daisy Chain".

Second reading
- Display a picture of a mountain slope and some daisies.
- Demonstrate how to put the daisies "here", "there" and "everywhere".
- Read aloud the first stanza of the poem.
- Individual pupils put the daisies on the picture while the whole class read aloud the first stanza together.
- Underline the stressed syllables on each line and demonstrate how to clap hands for them.
- Pupils read aloud the first stanza and clap hands when they read the stressed syllables.
- Read aloud the first and second lines of the second stanza. Act out how to pick a flower.
- Display four stick puppets and introduce the names of the children.
- Invite four pupils to act as the children.
- Pupils read aloud the second stanza while the four pupils pick the daisies.
- Use the daisies picked by the children to make a daisy chain.
- Explain the word "plain" by comparing daisies to other flowers in the poster.
- Read aloud the second stanza. Invite pupils to underline the stressed syllables.
- Pupils read aloud the poem and clap hands when they are reading the stressed syllables.
Third reading

- Shared read the poem with pupils.
- Circle the two rhyming words in the first stanza, i.e. there, everywhere. Pupils circle other rhyming words in the poem, i.e. Jane, again, plain, chain.
- Teach pupils that these are rhyming words.
- Introduce the Long a letter sound as in "plain", "chain".
- Develop a class word daisy. Ask pupils to enter more words to the word daisy, using words from the poem, their coursebooks or other English books.
- Pupils read aloud the words in the class word daisy.
- Display the class word daisy in the classroom.
Learning/Teaching Objectives

Teaching Procedures

1. Presenting the book
   - Point to the title. Pps read aloud the book title, identify the names of the author and the illustrator.
   - Use a word book/picture dictionary to explain “Hotel”. Say: Do you live in a hotel?
   - Make use of the book cover to invite predictions. Say: Who lives in this hotel? Look at the picture. Where are the birds from? Why do they stay in the “Bird Hotel”? What is this book about?
   - Recap the content covered in Session 1. Say: Class, tell me something about the book.
   - Introduce the ISBN

Did anyone live with this person? Guess the answers. Now turn to p.2 to check your answers. Guide pps to use the pictorial clues on p.2 to get the meaning of “No one lived with Mrs. Biddle.” Read aloud para 1 & 2 and explain “lived by myself”. Ask pps to look at the picture on p.3. Say: What can you see in this picture? Which season is it? Elicit from pps “garden, tree, birds, house, spring”. Write “Spring” on bb. Write the pre-reading question: What do baby birds eat? Pps use their previous learning and personal experiences to suggest food for baby birds, e.g. rice, seeds, corn, bread, insects, earthworms and grasshoppers. Use pictures from word books and picture dictionaries to help if necessary. Help pps confirm their predictions. Say: Turn to p.5. Look at the pictures and tell me. - Use authentic recording and demonstration to explain “chirping”.
- Share read “They were making nests in her tree and they were chirping.” with pps.
- Say: Did Mrs Biddle like the birds? How do you know? Guide pps to point to the sentences “Go away! I want to live by myself.” Demonstrate how to read aloud the sentences.
- Pps read aloud p.2 together.

Set the pre-reading question: Did the birds go away? How did Mrs Biddle feel?

- Ask pps to look at the illustrations on p.4 to find the answer.
- Pps read p.4 silently and confirm the answers.

- Use a toy parrot and a toy nest to explain “They flew in and out of the tree.”
- Say: Why did the mother bird do this? (To bring food to the baby) Why was Mrs Biddle so angry? (The birds were noisy “all day long, from morning till night.”)

- Ask pps to use quotation marks to identify direct speech. Say: Look at the illustration on p.7. How did Mrs Biddle feel? (angry) What does she say? Read pp.5 & 6 and find out. Look for the open and close quotation marks.
- Guide pps to use contextual clues to get the meaning of “What a noise!” and “This is terrible. I just want to live by myself.” Then share read with pps, using appropriate intonation to express Mrs Biddle’s feelings.

• Point to Mrs Biddle in the picture and say: What is she saying? Can you find it on p.8? Pps read aloud p.8, using appropriate intonation and voice level.
| | • Relate the content to pps' personal experience. Say: What do you want to do by yourself?
• Pps write down three things that they want to do by themselves, e.g. I want to play TV games by myself.
• Homework: Activity Sheet 1
