

'Hit my hand'

-  The teacher asks the pupils to stand in a line facing him/her.
-  He/She then puts up his/her hand and asks the pupils to use their voices to hit his/her hand as though it were a target.
-  He/She then moves his/her hand up and down, and forwards and backwards so that the pupils learn to project their voices in different directions.