

Handbook on Remedial Teaching of English in Primary Schools

English Section
Advisory Inspectorate
Education Department
Hong Kong
1999

Contents

	Page
I. Introduction	1
II. Aim of remedial teaching	2
III. Administrative Guidelines
A. Organizing remedial teaching in a school	3
B. Class organization	4
C. Accommodation	5
D. Basic considerations for remedial teaching	5
E. Selection and transfer of pupils	6
F. Parental involvement	6
G. Selection of teachers	6
H. Monitoring and evaluation	6
I. Storage of remedial teaching resources	7
IV. Professional Guidelines
A. Role of the headmaster/ panel chairperson / teacher-in-charge of remedial teaching	8
B. Role of the remedial group teacher	11
C. Dealing with pupils' general areas of weaknesses	13
D. Teaching strategies	15
E. Assessment	18
V. Services provided by the Advisory Inspectorate	21
VI. Addresses and telephone numbers for enquiry	23
VII. Appendices	24

Acknowledgements

This handbook has been produced by the English Section of the Advisory Inspectorate, Education Department.

The English Section would like to express its gratitude to the Development Unit of the Curriculum Development Institute, Education Department for kind permission to allow us to use materials in their Target Oriented Curriculum publications. The contributions of the teachers participating in the workshops for remedial teaching of English conducted in the 1997-98 school year are also warmly acknowledged.