

Part 1: Who says what? Write 'S' for Sonia, 'B' for the boy and 'D' for the dinosaur!

- "Dinosaur Dig! Fantastic!! This is just what I wanted!"
- "RUN!"
- "Look!"
- "No! You mustn't pick the golden ones up! Now watch out for the dinosaur!"
- "Only 1!"
- "Well, the game is over! But I've got 3 lives left. How many have you got?"
- "What will happen if the dinosaur catches us?"
- "ROAR!"
- "Bye, bye, dino. Hmm. Maybe I'll play a different game."
- "You're in Dinosaur Dig. We have to find old dinosaur bones."
- "Here's one!"
- "Where am I?"

Part 2: Can you put the dialogue in the correct order?

Part 3: Play the 'Dinosaur Dig' game with your partner! You each need a grid, 3 bones and 5 dinosaurs like the ones below. Do not look at your partner's grid!

1. First, cut and stick the bones in 3 of the squares.
2. Next, cut and stick the dinosaurs in 5 different squares.
3. In turn, ask and answer, "Is there a bone in square (A1)?"
4. If you find a bone, you get 1 point.
If you find a dinosaur, you lose 1 life! You only have 3 lives!

Can you find all 3 bones before you lose your 3 lives?! Good luck!
