

The 15th National Games of the People's Republic of China (NG), The 12th National Games for Persons with Disabilities (NGD) and The 9th National Special Olympic Games (NSOG)

“Organising Principles
Simple, Safe and Wonderful”

NG Basic Information

Date: 9-21 November, 2025
Co-hosted by Guangdong, Hong Kong and Macao
34 Competition events
23 Mass participation events

- 1st NG was hosted by Beijing in 1959
- Organise once every 4 years
- The nation's highest level
and the largest national multi-sports event

History of NG

Mass participation events

Mass participation events were first included in the NG in its 13th edition held in 2017 under the concept of “benefit ordinary people, make a healthy China (全運惠民 健康中國)”, with a view to providing an opportunity for the public to participate in the nation's highest-level multi-sports event and thus promoting sports for all.

NG events co-hosted by Hong Kong

Basketball
(Men U22)

Beach Volleyball

Triathlon

Golf

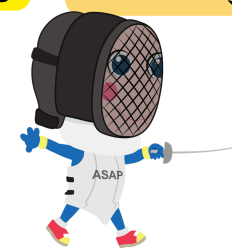

Handball
(Men)

Track Cycling

Fencing

Rugby Sevens

Mass Participation
Event
Bowling

NGD & NSOG events co-hosted by Hong Kong

Date: 8-15 December, 2025
Competition Events: Boccia, Wheelchair fencing,
Para Table Tennis
Mass Participation Event: Para Dance Sport
Special Olympic event: Special Olympics Table Tennis

Source: Culture, Sports and Tourism Bureau

This infographic is developed by Curriculum Development Institute, Education Bureau

