- Salt and pepper are always passed together
Rest and Finished Positions (1)

- The fork would be on the left and the knife on the right, this is called the “rest” position.

Appetizer
- Cut your salad if the leaves are too large
Soup

- Dip the spoon into the soup, moving it away from the body, until it is about two-thirds full, then sip the liquid from the side of the spoon
  - Without inserting the whole bowl of the spoon into the mouth
- It is perfectly fine to tilt the bowl slightly to get the last spoonful or two of soup
- To eat bread while eating your soup, don't hold the bread in one hand and your soup spoon in the other
- When ready to eat a bite of your bread, place the spoon on the under plate, then use the same hand to take the bread to your mouth
Third Course (Pasta)

- Prawn
  - If large shrimp are served on a platter with sauce and no fork, pick up with your fingers, dip into sauce and put to your mouth.
  - When eating shrimp with the tail still on, hold the shrimp by the tail and dip it into the sauce.
  - Eat it in one bite if it is not too large, otherwise, eat it in two bites.

- Pasta
  - Spaghetti is twirled on the fork with the help of a spoon to steady it and keep the spaghetti on the fork.
  - A knife is not used and pasta is generally not cut, unless it is large such as Lasagna.
  - It is perfectly acceptable to use a bit of bread and go after the last remnants of the sauce on the plate.
