

Junior Secondary Business Case Competition 2025/26

Terms & Conditions

1. Each participant shall submit only one entry. Duplicate submissions will not be considered.
2. Only original, non-award winning, and unpublished (online/offline) entries are eligible for the Competition. Plagiarised, translated, AI-generated, award-winning, or published entries (including co-authored submissions) will not be considered. The Organiser reserves the right to disqualify the participant if any violation is found. If a disqualified participant has been awarded, he/she shall return all prizes, certificates and trophies, and submit a written apology to the Organiser.
3. Entry (including music and sound effects) must not contain any information or advertising for any commercial products or companies, other than the case company, nor infringe upon any third-party rights (including intellectual property rights, confidentiality rights, or privacy rights). Entry must not contain explicit, violent, pornographic, defamatory, offensive, insulting, controversial, or inappropriate content.
4. Upon submission, the Organiser retains the right to publish and distribute all entries and reserves the right to use the entries reproduced in any form for promotion and any other purposes deemed necessary, including but not limited to public exhibitions, the Organiser's and the Co-organiser's websites, social media and publications.
5. Participants agree to participate in activities and related promotions associated with the Competition, and understand and agree that photos and videos taken during the Competition may be used by the Organiser and the Co-organiser for future promotional purposes.
6. Personal data collected from participants will only be used for the purposes of handling matters related to the Competition and contacting winners by the Organiser and the Co-organiser. All personal data will be destroyed within three months after the Competition, except for the names announced as part of the Competition's conditions.
7. The Organiser and the Co-Organiser and their staff shall not be liable for any damage, loss, liability, action, proceedings, claim, demand, costs or expenses suffered by or brought against any applicants of this Competition or any other person arising out of or in relation to the Competition.
8. By submitting an application for the Competition, participants signify their agreement and acceptance of the above terms and conditions, as well as the binding nature of the terms and conditions set by the Organiser and Co-organiser. The Organiser and Co-organiser reserve the right to accept applications at their discretion.
9. The decision made by the Organiser and the Co-organiser regarding the application and the results shall be final and conclusive.
10. In the event of any discrepancies between the Chinese and English versions of the Competition details, rules, terms, and conditions, the Chinese version shall prevail.

Personal Information Collection Statement and Disclaimer

1. The Organiser or Co-organisers retains the right to verify participants' identity with personal information provided by the participant, school or teacher. Participants will be disqualified if they fail to provide such personal information. Contact information will not be disclosed to the public or used for any other promotional purposes.
2. Participants, schools and teachers must present student IDs or other relevant identity proof for prize collection. Failure to do so may result in the inability to award prizes to the winning participants.
3. Personal information of participant, school, and teacher will be used for event application, communication, survey data collection, result announcement, and statistical analysis. Names of participant and school may appear on the websites of the Organiser and Co-organisers, as well as other websites and media.

Junior Secondary Business Case Competition 2025/26

4. The Organiser and Co-organisers retain the right to publish and distribute all entries and reserve the right to use the entries for educational, promotional and any other purposes which deem necessary. Participants shall not have any right to edit, modify, object or request the takedown of, and shall not possess any intellectual property rights or interest in the submitted entries.