

ICAC 'iTeen Programme for Secondary Schools'

iTeen Interactive Drama

- The ICAC will arrange for a professional drama troupe to perform interactive plays to educate students against the evils of corruption, explore with them how to handle challenges to personal integrity, as well as enhance their law-abiding awareness.

'iTeen Integrity Journey' - Visit to the ICAC

- Students will visit the Exhibition Hall in the ICAC Building and attend a talk during which ICAC officers will introduce to them the anti-corruption legislations, corruption cases, the work and entry requirements of different ICAC departments, etc.
- ICAC Investigators will be invited to share their work experience with students in most sessions.

iTeen Leadership Programme for Senior Secondary School Students

- In support of 'Other Learning Experiences' under the Senior Secondary Curriculum, the programme recruits students of Secondary 4 or above to be iTeen Leaders to assist teachers in organising probity promotion activities in schools to disseminate integrity messages.
- Active iTeen Leaders will be awarded certificates of merits and may be nominated to the ICAC's 'ELITE Youth Leadership Programme' and summer training activities with job tasting opportunities.

For details, please visit the ICAC's Moral Education Website: <https://me.icac.hk/moral-activity/activity/index.html>

Enquiry hotline: 2826 3374

The programme, through organising a Student Participation Scheme and providing an animation-based teaching package, aims to support teachers to implement their school-based values education curriculum within and beyond the classroom, with a view to cultivating students' positive values and attitudes.

Student Participation Scheme

- Activity manual and handy materials with different moral education themes are provided by the ICAC to participating schools.
- Schools may recruit upper primary students as 'i Junior Leaders' to carry out interesting activities to spread positive messages to their fellow schoolmates.

Animation-based Teaching Package

- ICAC has produced a series of animation named 'The Little Coffee Bean Missions' (in Cantonese, with English subtitles) based on the everyday life events of primary school students, covering different positive values such as 'self-discipline and rule-abidingness', 'honesty', 'fairness', 'empathy', 'respect for others', etc.
- Learning and teaching resources (including lesson plans, PowerPoints, worksheets and suggested extended learning activities) and useful teaching aids (such as posters, game cards and puzzles) are also available on the web for schools' reference and use.

For details, please visit the ICAC's Moral Education Website: <https://me.icac.hk/icac/ijunior/index.html>
Enquiry hotline: 2826 3374

- A set of 4 ICAC 'Reading for Integrity' picture books features children's everyday life with interesting drawings and promotes different positive values, including probity, integrity, rule-abidingness and responsibility etc. to kindergarten and lower primary students. The picture books are suitable for teachers' use in storytelling activities, Personal Development / Moral Education lessons, or for parent-child reading activities.
- A set of related resources including reading guides, PowerPoints, suggestions on extended learning activities, worksheets, handicraft materials for parent-child activities, online games, etc. are also available on the web for teachers' / parents' reference.

For e-version of the picture books and related resources, please visit the ICAC's Moral Education Website:

<https://me.icac.hk/content/picturebook/index.html>

Enquiry hotline: 2826 3374

- The e-Book contains Chinese and English Stories written by authors of children's literature which are suitable for lower and upper primary students. The stories aim to promote positive values, such as probity, integrity, fairness, respect and care, among young kids through everyday life scenarios.
- The e-book includes audio-reading functions (including Cantonese, Putonghua and English) and the stories are supplemented with specially designed worksheets which may be used by teachers (during Personal Development / Moral Education lessons) and parents as extended learning / parenting activities with students.

Kindergarten / Lower Primary

Upper Primary

For details, please visit the ICAC's Moral Education Website:

<https://me.icac.hk/book-corner/audio-book/junior/index.html>

<https://me.icac.hk/book-corner/audio-book/senior/index.html>

ICAC Exhibition & Game Sets

- Display panels provided by the ICAC can be set up in schools to introduce the birth of the ICAC, the work of its departments, the definition of corruption, the channels to report corruption, etc.

- ICAC's game sets or audio-visual products can also be provided to schools for conveying probity messages.

ICAC Anti-Corruption Talk

- ICAC officers conduct talks at schools to introduce the work of the ICAC, the definition and the evils of corruption as illustrated by some real cases related to youth.

*For reservation / enquiries, please contact the Youth and Moral Education Office,
Community Relations Department, ICAC at 2826 3374.*