<input type="checkbox"/>	I have read and understood the Conditions and Regulations for the Time to Talk Public Speaking Competition 2023/24.
<input type="checkbox"/>	I understand that participating students must submit: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a Permission for the Use of Images form for photos or video footage (to be submitted before the day of the competition); and • their full names via the Team Names and Abbreviations Google Form (to be sent to schools in early 2024)

In the finals, schools may enter up to TWO teams to the competition. However, the same student cannot be entered in more than one team/entry. The contingency plan, should regulations become stricter, is that we would revert back to an online format and all students should submit a pre-recorded entry rather than attend the face-to-face competition.

I confirm that the Time to Talk public speaking presentation created by my students will be original and, while supported by research, is a result of their work. As their teacher, I will act only in a supervisory capacity.
