

Making Predictions with News Headlines

You are about to read the script of a news broadcast, but first, look at the title. Can you tell what the broadcast is about? The title is 'Unscrupulous Practices Milk the Public'.

A. What part of speech are the key words of the title? Circle the answer.

- | | | | | |
|-------------------|------|------|-----------|--------|
| 1. Unscrupulous = | noun | verb | adjective | adverb |
| 2. Practices = | noun | verb | adjective | adverb |
| 3. Milk = | noun | verb | adjective | adverb |
| 4. Public = | noun | verb | adjective | adverb |

B. Match the following words with the key words in the news headline and write the answers in the boxes below. Some words are not related:

common
healthy drink
methods
popular
study

everyone
honest
not ethical people
take advantage of

exercises
interesting
not right
protein
ways

exploit
legal
open space
society
cancer-causing

Unscrupulous Practices Milk the Public

