Song 1: A musical time of year

(All citizens/guests dance happily and everyone cheers)

King: Hello my people. It's great to see you!

All citizens: We're so glad to meet you, Your Majesty.

King: We have so many guests and friends from all over the world! Welcome to Fa La La Land, the kingdom of joy and peace! I am King Edwin.

(Everyone bows to the king.)

Queen: I am Queen Diana. Dear guests, the song we sang just now was so wonderful. Wasn't it?

Maid: Of course, my Queen. Every year we invite outstanding musicians from different countries from all over the world to write songs for us!

King: And the lovely song we just sang is actually our Christmas theme song from last year.

Citizens: Wow! What about the song this year?

Queen: There will be a new song for sure.

Maid: I think we all can't wait for it!

King: Christmas this year is very important. Because I know for sure that Santa Claus will visit our country this winter!

Citizens: That's great!

Queen: I believe everybody can't wait to see Santa.

Maid: And to receive wonderful presents from him.

Citizens: Oh yes! We can't wait to see him!

King: I think Prince Adam also has the same wish. He wants to meet Santa Claus, too.

Queen: I really hope my dear son can make a wish with Santa...

(Everyone is puzzled due to the unexpected sadness of the king and the queen.)

Citizens 2: What about the songs in the past? Aren't they happy enough?

Clara: They are not good enough... Every year we work so hard to write new songs, but Santa never appears...

Queen: This year I have invited the best team of composers to write music for us.

King: And the most outstanding lyricists to give us the finest lyrics.
