

Table Summary

School premises for reprovisioning of existing government and aided secondary schools

This table consists of 5 columns. The first column is item number. The second column is district. The third column is location. The fourth column is school design, number of classroom and approximate area (square metre). The fifth column is estimated completion date.

End of summary