

Unique features of Play

Child-initiated

Involvement

Autonomy

Learning through Play at Home

Socio-emotion

Play promotes impulse control and emotion regulation, encourages relationship building.

Language

Play encourages communication and improves vocabulary.

Creativity

Play allows exposure to diversity of perspectives and exploration of possibilities.

Intelligence

Play stimulates brain development and improves cognitive function.

10 must-play items you can find at home

*Making use of loose materials provides children with endless ways to learn and create.

Rubber bands

Tissue paper rolls

Empty bottles

Magazines

Tape

Clothespins

Fabric

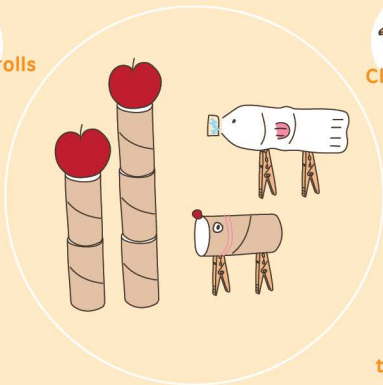

Egg trays

Baskets

Unwanted toothbrushes

EDB Parent Education
Information at Kindergarten Stage

EDB
YouTube Channel

