

Scholarship for Teachers (Pursuit of Master’s Degree Programmes) (2024/25) Information Sheet

Background

1. Since its inception in June 2013, the Committee on Professional Development of Teachers and Principals (COTAP) has been working towards building shared vision, mission and objectives for enhancing the professional development of teachers and school leaders in Hong Kong. To achieve these goals, COTAP has launched T-excel@hk, an overarching project which comprises eight areas of focus¹.
2. The Scholarship for Teachers (Pursuit of Master’s Degree Programmes) (“the Scholarship for Teachers”) is a scheme under T-applause, which is one of the focus areas under T-excel@hk.

Aim

3. The Scholarship for Teachers aims to recognise achievements of high-performing teachers and to encourage teachers’ pursuit of higher qualifications as well as to enhance their professionalism.

⁵ STEAM stands for Science, Technology, Engineering, Arts and Mathematics.

⁶ The copy of the offer letter submitted by applicants within two weeks after the application deadline (i.e. 14-27 June 2024) is also accepted if the applicants do not receive the offer letter on or before 13 June 2024.

9. Eligible applicants will be invited for an interview by email by the end of June 2024. The interview is scheduled for early to mid-July 2024 and is compulsory in nature.
10. The scholarship will be awarded on the basis of merit. Selection will be based on the attributes that applicants demonstrate as teachers, performance in school, as well as contribution to their serving school and to the education community outside the school
11. Applicants will be informed of the selection results in September 2024. The decision of the Education Bureau on the awardees shall be final and appeals are not accepted.

Teaching Obligation and Undertaking

12. Awardees have to undertake to fulfill the teaching obligation by continuing to serve for one year as full-time regular teachers in local secondary or primary day schools (including special schools) offering a formal curriculum upon completion of the relevant study programme.
13. Awardees are required to sign an undertaking which delineates the terms and conditions that they should comply with. These include, but are not limited to, the requirements for awardees to:
 - (a) complete the specified programme in not more than four years;
 - (b) continue serving in a local day school during the study of the programme; and
 - (c) fulfill the one-year teaching obligation immediately after completion of the programme.
14. At any point of time, if a breach of the undertaking occurs, awardees will be required to repay to the Government the scholarship amounts received on an interest-free basis. However, the circumstance will be considered on a case-by-case basis for reasons of breaching the undertaking not within the awardees' control such as accidents, ill health, etc.
