

Scholarship for Teachers (Pursuit of Master's Degree Programmes) (2026/27)

Information Sheet

Background

1. Since its inception in June 2013, the Committee on Professional Development of Teachers and Principals (COTAP) has been working towards building shared vision, mission and objectives for enhancing the professional development of teachers and school leaders in Hong Kong. To achieve these goals, COTAP has launched T-excel@hk, an overarching project which comprises eight areas of focus<sup>1</sup>.
2. The Scholarship for Teachers (Pursuit of Master's Degree Programmes) ("the Scholarship for Teachers") is a scheme under T-applause, which is one of the focus areas under T-excel@hk.

Aim

3. The Scholarship for Teachers aims to recognise achievements of high-performing teachers and to encourage teachers' pursuit of higher qualifications as well as to enhance their professionalism.

Eligibility for Application

4. Application is open to full-time serving teachers who -
  - (a) are permanent residents of Hong Kong;
  - (b) are registered teachers;
  - (c) are regular teachers<sup>2</sup> in local primary or secondary day schools (including special schools) offering a local curriculum<sup>3</sup> at the time of application;
  - (d) have no less than five years (as at 31 August 2025) of teaching experience<sup>4</sup> as full-time teachers in local primary or secondary day schools (including special schools) offering a local curriculum;
  - (e) adhere to the standards of professional conduct of teachers and have no records of professional misconduct and punishment imposed by the Education Bureau (EDB) and/or schools;
  - (f) have not been awarded this Scholarship before; and
  - (g) have been enrolled to start, in the 2026/27 school year, the first year of study in a local part-time master's degree programme offered by a local higher education institution<sup>5</sup>

<sup>2</sup> In the context of Direct Subsidy Scheme schools and private schools, "regular teachers" refers to regular members of the teaching staff in school. Teachers employed under the Native-speaking English Teacher Scheme in public sector are not included.

<sup>7</sup> The copy of the offer letter submitted by applicants within two weeks after the application deadline (i.e. 13-26 June 2026) is also accepted if the applicants do not receive the offer letter on or before 12 June 2026.

essential part of the selection process. Rescheduling of interviews will not be entertained. Applicants who cannot attend the assigned interview will be regarded as self-withdrawal of their applications for the Scholarship for Teachers. Applicants who are not invited for an interview may assume that their applications are not successful.

10. The scholarship will be awarded on the basis of merit. Selection will be based on the attributes that applicants demonstrate as teachers, their performance within school and their contribution to their serving schools and to the education community outside the school.
11. Applicants attending the interview will be informed of the selection results in October 2026. The decision of the EDB on the selection of awardees shall be final and appeals are not accepted.

Teaching Obligations and Undertakings

12. Awardees have to undertake to fulfill the teaching obligations by continuing to serve for one year as full-time regular teachers in local secondary or primary day schools (including special schools) offering a local curriculum upon completion of the relevant study programme.
13. Awardees are required to sign the undertakings which delineate the terms and conditions that they should comply with. These include, but are not limited to, the requirements for awardees to:
  - (a) complete the specified programme in not more than four years;
  - (b) continue serving in local primary or secondary day schools (including special schools) offering a local curriculum during the study of the programme; and
  - (c) fulfill the one-year teaching obligations immediately after completion of the programme.
14. At any point of time, if a breach of the undertakings occurs, awardees will be required to repay to the Government the scholarship amounts received on an interest-free basis.
