

User Guide

1. Learning and teaching resources provided on this website, including lesson plans, worksheets and presentation slides, are to support teachers to carry out values education in schools.
2. Teachers should refer to the Values Education Curriculum Framework \(Pilot Version\) \(2021\), and flexibly adapt and amend the learning and teaching resources for better catering to the school vision, school development, and students' developmental and learning needs.
3. Teachers may also refer to the directions set in the Values Education Curriculum Framework \(Pilot Version\) \(2021\), exercise their professional judgment, and select suitable learning and teaching resources developed by other government departments, voluntary groups and social welfare organisations, for promotion of values education in schools.
4. The Moral, Civic and National Education Section will update the content of learning and teaching resources in a timely manner. Teachers should visit the Values Education Webpage frequently to obtain up-to-date information.
5. If some information cannot be downloaded or viewed on this learning and teaching resources webpage due to copyright issues, teachers may visit relevant websites through the URL provided.
