

Catering for Learner Diversity under the New Academic Structure

The Challenges of SS Visual Arts Curriculum

Mr. Cho Wing Keung
Homantin Government Secondary School

基本意念

- 學校只能夠教授學生有限的知識範圍
- 我的教學方針，旨在培養學生的主動自學和解決問題的能力
- 重點是讓學生學會學習(learning to learn)

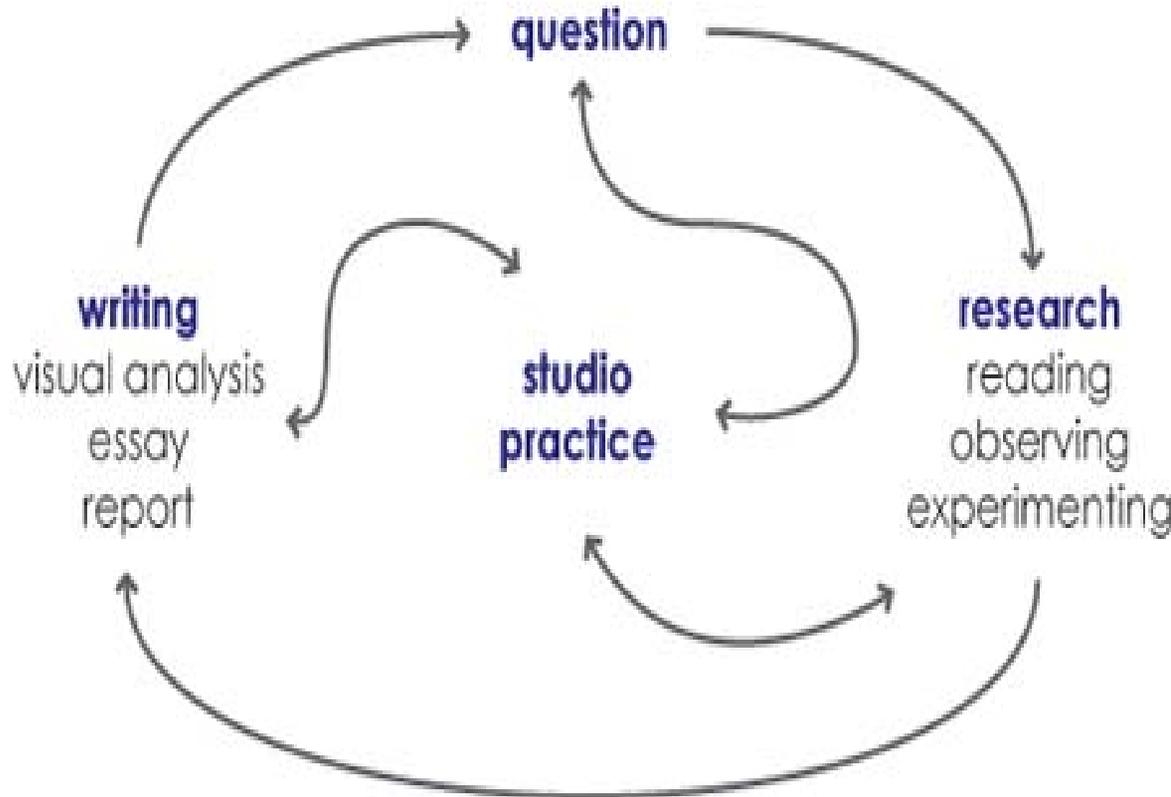

學生為本

- 學生選擇有興趣的範圍
 - 在老師的輔助下，幫助學生執行自學
- 學生對視覺藝術科有興趣，而主動學習是重要的
 - 透過多元化的活動和改變教學方式，可引發同學們豐富的想像和加深他們對學習的興趣

Learning / Working Process

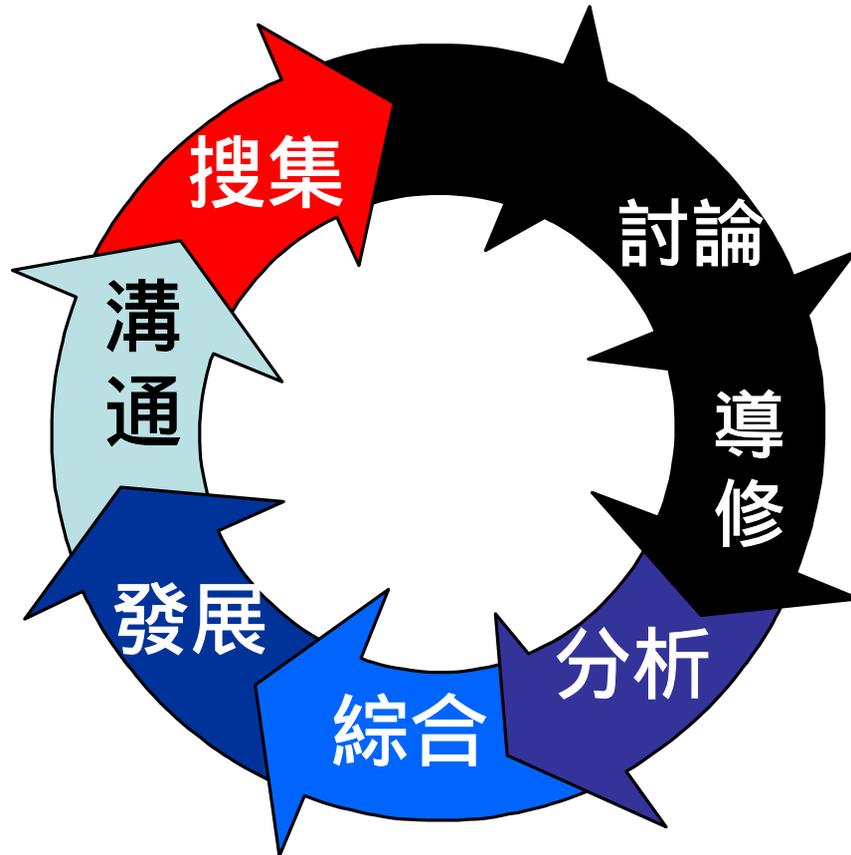

- Brain storm
- Get the reference
- Development
 - Idea
 - Techniques
- Practice
- A good work
- Reflection

Repeat the Process

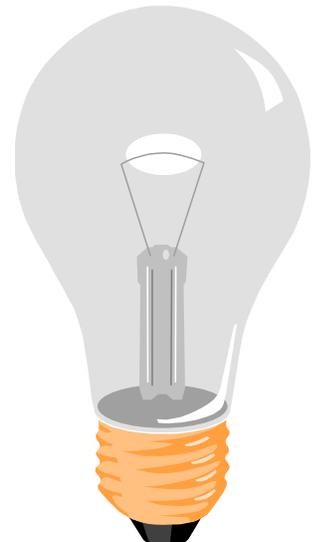

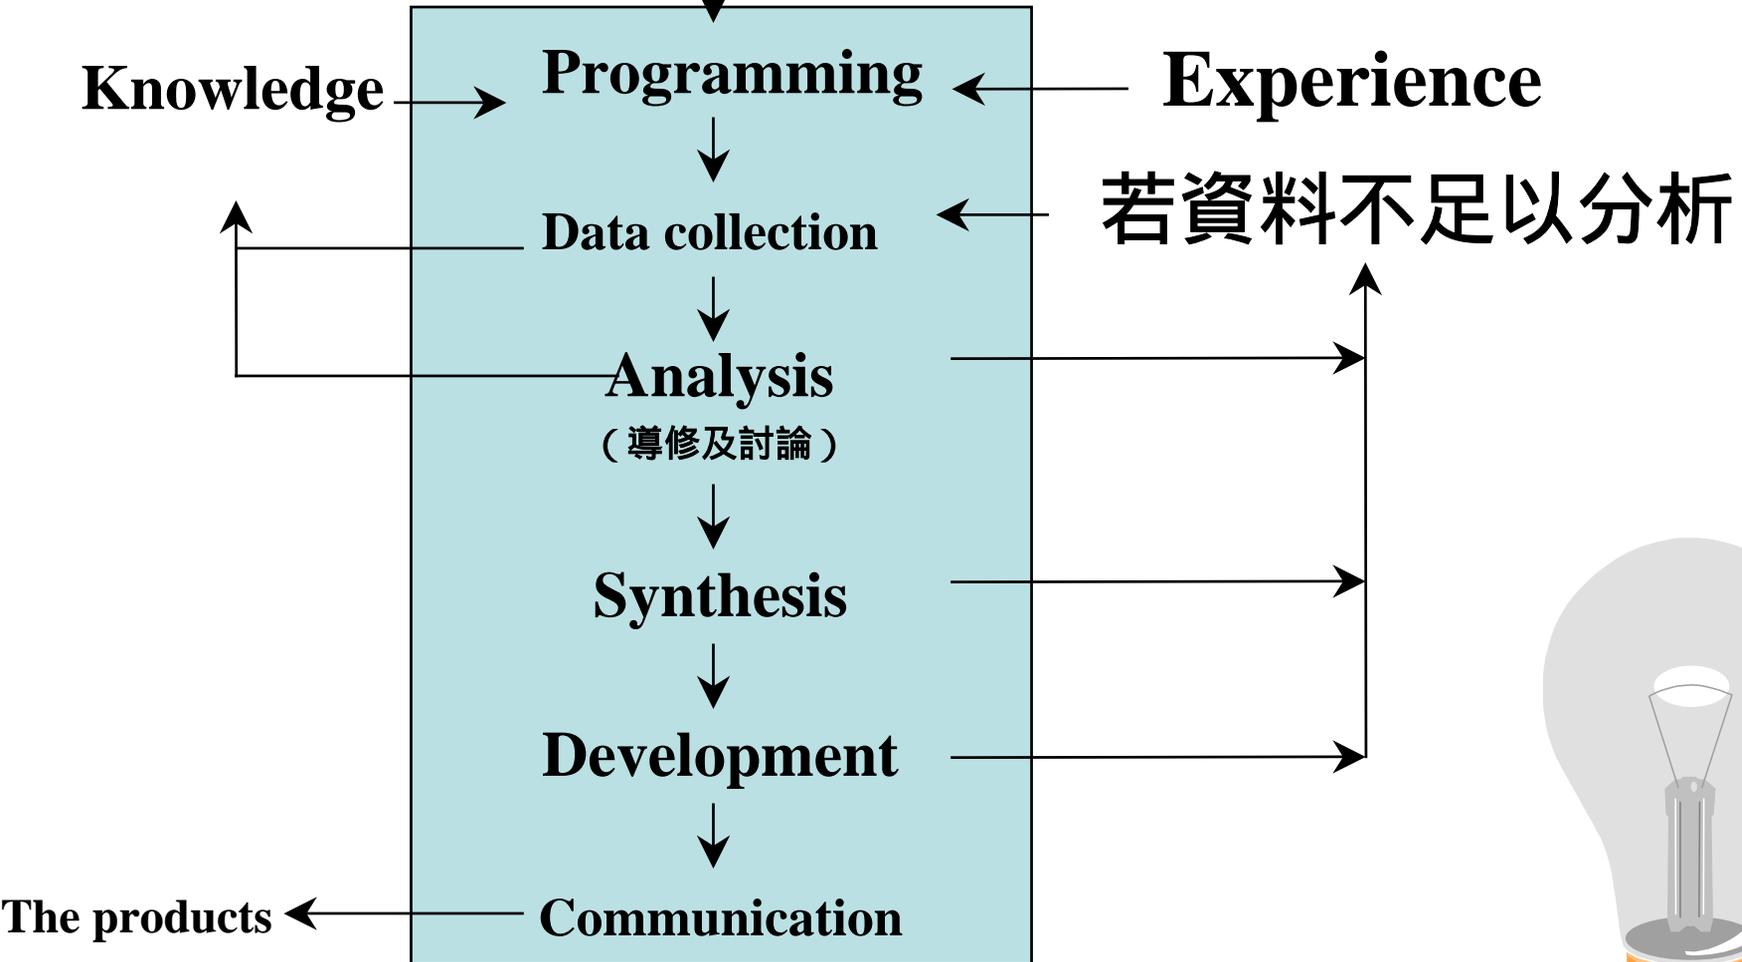

深入學習 Deep Learning

- 同學們有足夠的時間研究和搜集資料，經過六個步驟的學習後，可掌握學習和解難技巧

Art Making Support

Example: Relief Printing (S.2)

1. Draw the image on a piece of tracing paper.

2. Reverse the tracing paper and place it over the woodblock with a carbon paper in between. Then trace along the image.

3. Carve out the space around the image.

4. Ink the relief part.

5. Place a piece of dampened paper over the inked block.

6. Cover the paper with a newsprint to prevent tearing and use a baren to rub in circular motion.

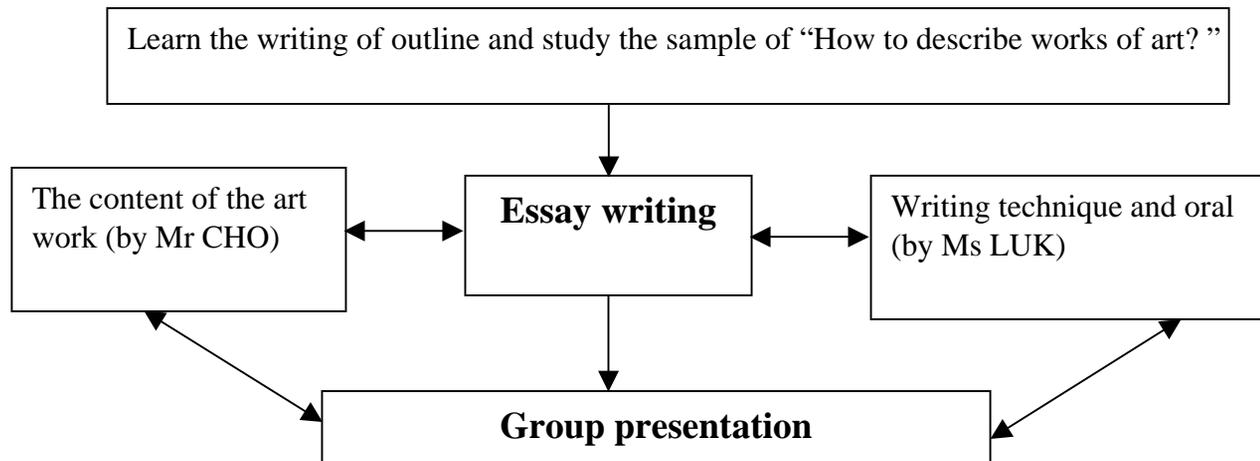

7. Remove the dampened paper carefully. A "relief print" is made.

Language Across the Curriculum Support

Example: How to describe works of art? (S.3)

How to describe works of Art:

1. Give information

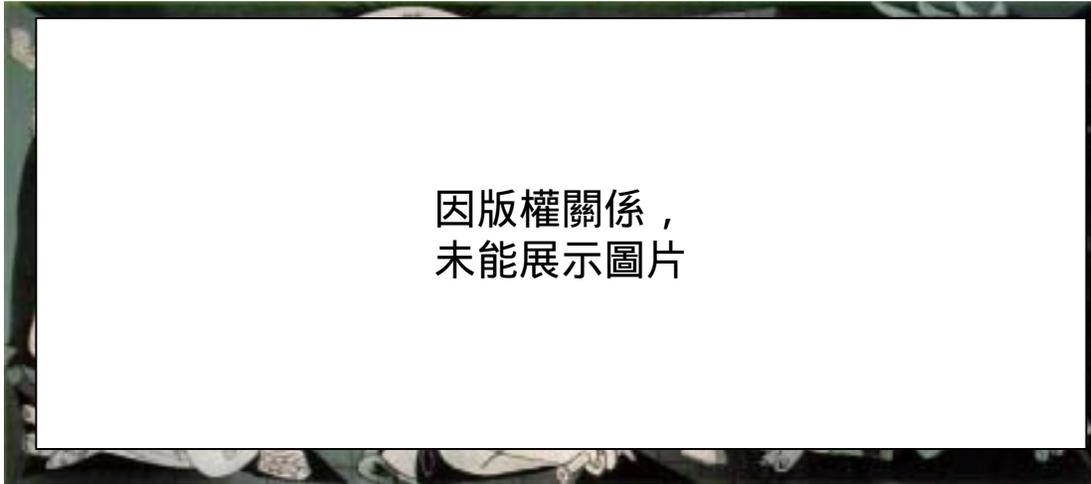

First of all it is important to give the name of the Artist and the title of the work, e.g. “The Weeping Woman” by Pablo Picasso.

It is a _____ (water colour painting /oil painting / acrylic painting / drawing / sculpture / relief print /intaglio print / lithographic print / screen process print / graphic design / fashion design / installation / digital art / Chinese painting / photographic / collage)

What materials were used-e.g. oil paint, mixed materials, clay, wood, cloth.....

Guernica

Pablo Picasso, Guernica, 1937

Guernica by Pablo Picasso is an oil painting. The style of the picture is Cubism Art. Pablo Picasso painted this famous picture in 1937, after German aircraft had bombed the beautiful Spanish city of Guernica. He wanted to show how terrible war can be.

Picasso has used lines to make the shapes of animals and people. He has shaded these shapes to give black, grey and white tones. The paint is flat, tight and hard edged. Fewer brush marks are showed on the canvas. People and animals have limited colours but the grey and black still make a dramatic picture. The picture colour is mainly cool and dull. The contrast of the black and white presents the pain of the war.

Duration September, October and November 2004

Objectives

- 1.Students will develop new and different ways to enhance their power of imagination, creative thinking and presentation skills.
- 2.Students can use paintings to express themes and topics related to themselves, their surroundings and the works of other artists.
- 3.Students will learn use a variety of materials and techniques for painting. They can develop their skills and ideas through the process of making, illustrating and presenting their layouts and paintings.
- 4.Students will learn to understand the meaning and value of works of visual arts in their own and other contexts including the art historical, personal, social, cultural, ideological and political.

Mixed Media The term "Mixed media" is commonly used to define works of art which combine different painting and drawing media. It is an exciting and experimental working practice which allows for the combination of likely and unlikely media. As a result it has enabled the extension of drawing and painting techniques into areas of photography, printmaking, collage, and low relief construction.

A brief history and examples Mixed media is usually regarded as an art form peculiar to the 20th century but throughout the history of painting works have been

Gustav Klimt, Watersnaked, 1904-07
George Braque, Violin and pipe, 1913
Max Ernst, Katarina Ondulata, 1920
Paul Klee, The Magic Garden, 1926
Pablo Picasso, Seated Woman, 1938
Joan Miro, Morning Star, 1940, tempera, oil and pastel
Ben Nicholson, August 1952, detail oil and pencil
Robert Rauschenberg, Reservoir, 1961

Each triangular prism has a die-cut recess into which one of the five products is placed.

The pattern here match with the columnar design, forms parallelogram!

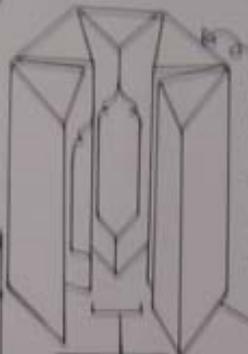

THE OUTLINE OF THE PRISM AND BELLY WRAP

The construction consists of five triangular prism.

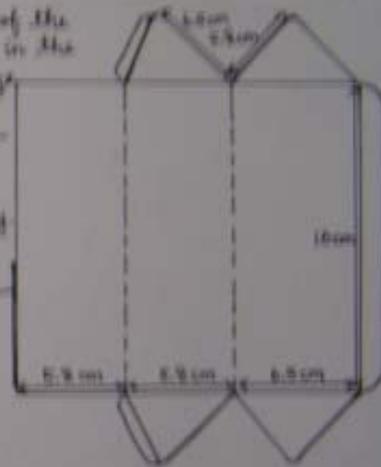

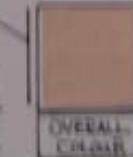

Then, in series that roll up to form a pentagonal prism package.

The display of the five products in the opened package is striking, flesh. A vision of refinement and modernity.

Inside, contains five cosmetic products, or some else, these all have their own packaging.

There, I would like to choose some transparent texture with interesting details later on.

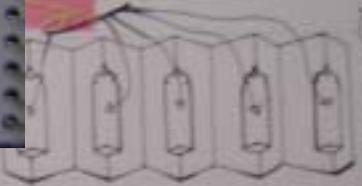

a collar of card that fits tightly around the rolled up core.

In case, the package would simply flop open, so something else was required to secure it then, at first, I think how about using a ribbon to tie the package up. It is beautiful, but may be not so good if we have to tie up every time after open. Finally, I found that this was simply and cleverly achieved with a belly wrap.

It was die-cut in a shape reminiscent of the arches of Indian pavilions, consistent with mystical sense of the visual identity upon which the product offering is based.

The overall color is chosen a layer of transparent details, sparkle with some femininity, for the consumer, not only elegant to the eyes, but also will be elegant to design when opening the package.

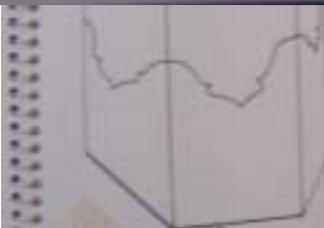

The gift box style of having is particularly effective. The most striking of the rectangular shape disappear the overall of products contained within.

I chose this pattern for the belly-wrap, in order to form a bell-shaped, that looks like there is a basket contains the gift box.

Brainstorm ... (Three Essential parts of fashion)

I gave my collections the generic name "Gradual" an ideal description for its particular overtly feminine and flattering designs.

I think it's good to add some fabric on the particular place in order to the other feel the texture on the time.

FASHION BOARD ~ divided into 3 parts.

- (i) HEAD --- HAIR
- (ii) BODY --- CLOTHING
- (iii) LEGS --- HEELS

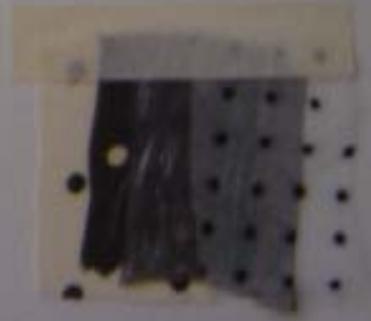

entertainment because you can see all these things and be really glad.

(i) I want to create a natural, with nature world environment, the background is chosen as a forest like with colorful plant like pattern, providing a cool and mystic atmosphere.

(ii) for the second, I want to add my favorite pattern "dots" (black & white) as the main element to it.

Art Work: Pandora's Box - Where is 'Hope' now?

The Greek myth about the Pandora's box is my second favorite story. It's my theme of the picture this time.

Story

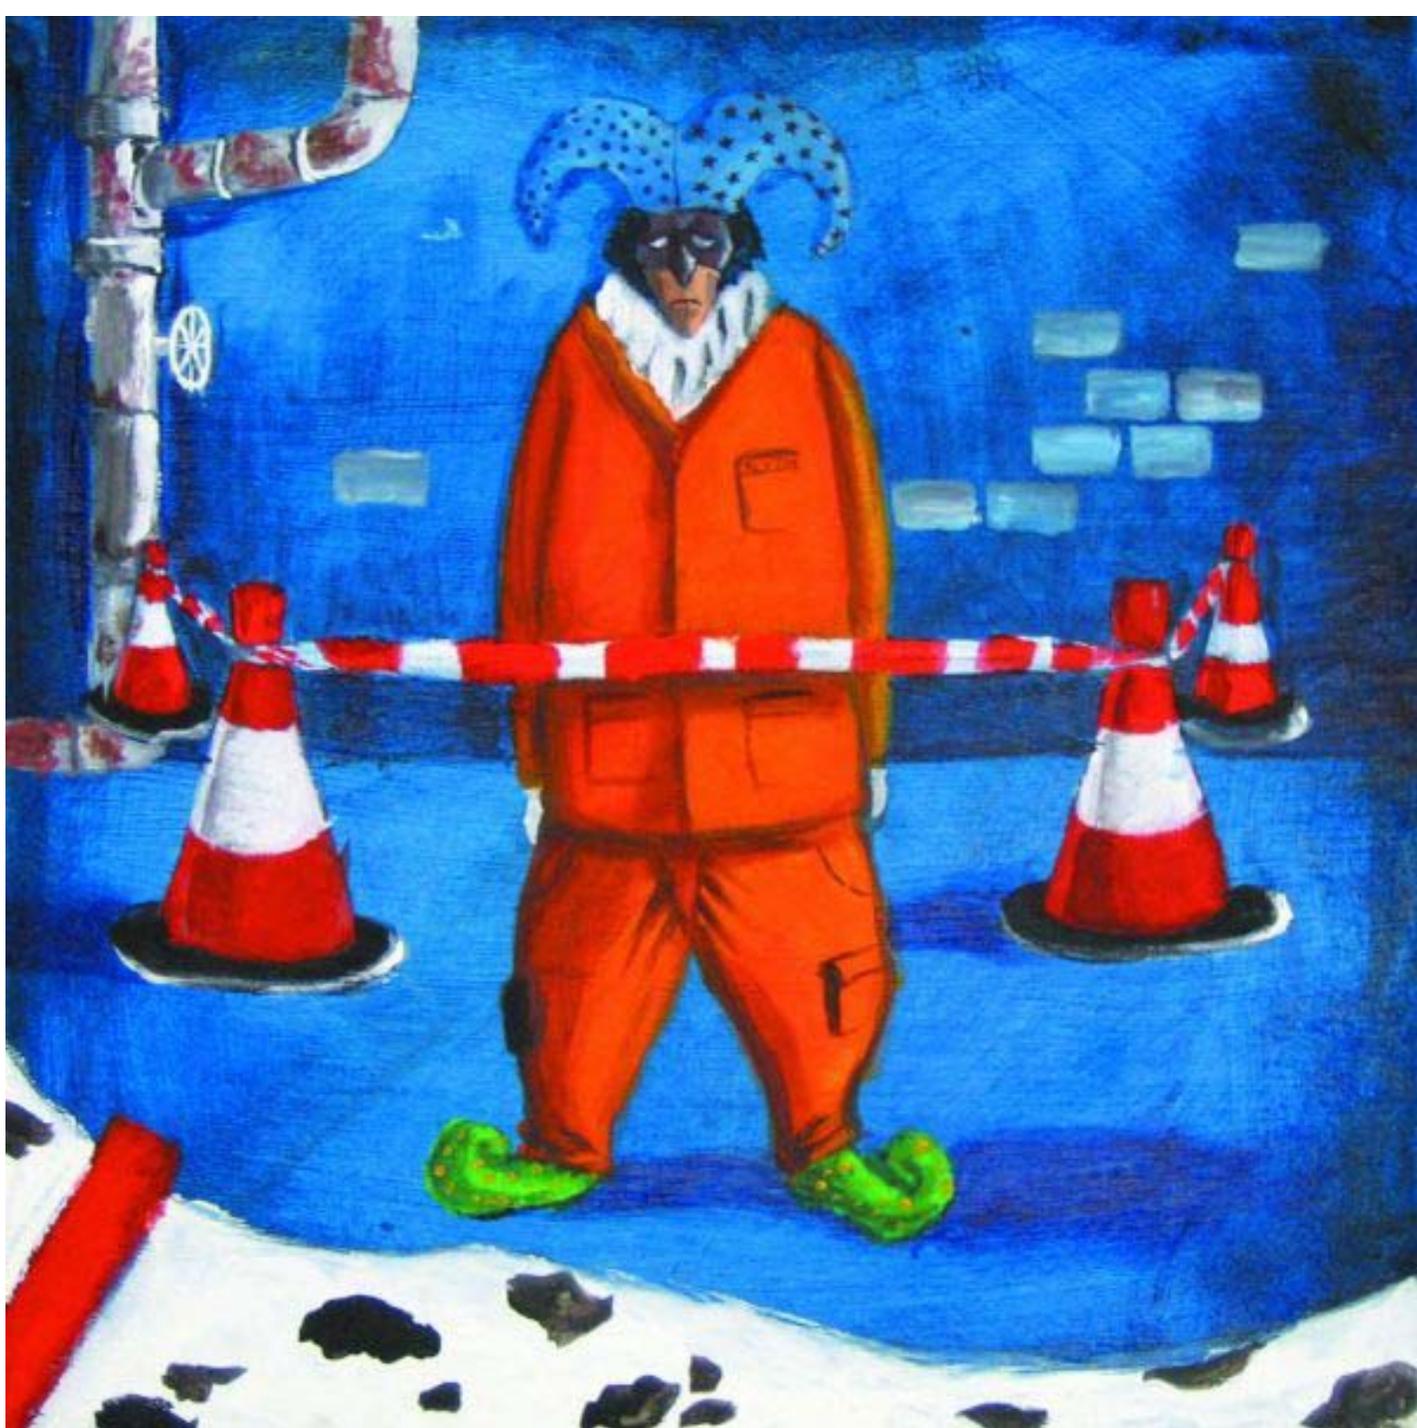

Pandora, the first woman created by the gods, was sent to the human together with a box. She was told not to open the box but her curiosity forced her to. When she opened it, evils like Despair, Revenge and Sorrow escaped. Pandora hastened to close the box just before 'Hope' could escape. So whatever the evils torture the human, there is still hope.

My Idea

My first idea is that: an angel will represent those evils and the box itself. Why? It's because in my mind, 'angel' doesn't represent happiness or holiness, but impending disaster and something horrible.

I had, though not a Christian joined a Christian Fellowship for almost 6 years. I'm quite familiar to Bible. I notice that the angels were usually the announcers of impending doom. Especially the seven angels in the Revelation who announce the beginning of Apocalypse by blowing the trumpets. It scares me. Also, I've seen those angel statues in graveyard. They looked so cold and dim. For me, they are closely linked with disaster and death. So when I begin to think about the picture, I decide to draw an angel as the role of evils.
