

Written Test

Sample (13)

The following figure shows the road network of a certain district. A man starts from A and ends up in B and he can only walk either due north or due east. Find the total number of different routes he can take.

Answer: The total number of different routes is _____.