Journalism in English – Primary School

Doris Chan, 2680 8685
Helen Siu, 2680 8689

Objective

- To learn about the basis of journalism and media literacy
- To understand the importance of media ethics
- To acquire the skills in identifying fake news through interactive games
- To distinguish the difference between fact and opinion and how it affects one's credibility
- To realize the importance of privacy both online and offline, and how to protect them
- To get hold of the effects of cyberbullying and how to fight against it

Highlight for Primary School Workshop

- Half day 3-hour workshop

- Not just theory, learn through games and discussions

- MOI: English

Coverage

- ## What is journalism?
  - Explain the names of the different roles
  - Explain what we do in a news organization

- ## Importance of Media?
  - How to distinguish what is fact and opinion?
  - Fact checking - the ways to distinguish fake news

- ## Case 1: Privacy
  - What is privacy?
  - How to protect your own privacy?
  - How to protect and respect other people's privacy?

- ## Case 2: Cyberbullying and how we fight against it
  - What is cyberbullying?
  - What are the consequences of scandals and rumours, doxing, hoaxes?
  - How shall we stand against cyberbullying?

SCMP Tour