4. The key message of this story is “heroes come in all shapes and sizes”. In short, anyone can be a hero, including ourselves. The super powers of the characters are in the boxes below. Explain the super powers by giving more details.

1) Know how to protect ourselves from COVID-19:
   - ________________
   - ________________
   - ________________
   - ________________

2) Show our love and care to our friends and relatives by:
   ____________________
   ____________________
   ____________________

3) Sometimes, to protect our friends and family members, we have to:
   ____________________
   ____________________

4) Be extra patient and understanding by:
   ____________________
   ____________________
   ____________________

5) Be brave to share our worries and stay calm:
   - ____________________
   - ____________________
   - ____________________
5. Reread Part 3 of the story “Sara and Ario met Salem” and underline the features of the story.

Setting:
Where did the story take place?

As the sun rose, they landed in a lovely desert by pyramids, where a small group of children were playing. The children cried out in joy and waved at Sara and her Ario.

“Welcome, I am Salem!” cried one of the boys. “What are you doing here? Sorry, we can’t come closer, we have to stay at least one metre away!”

“That’s why we’re here!” Sara called back. “I’m Sara and this is Ario. Did you know that children can keep their neighbours, friends, parents and grandparents safe from the coronavirus? We all need to…”

“Wash our hands with soap and water!” said Salem with a smile. “We know, Sara. We also cough into our elbows if we’re sick – and we wave to people instead of shaking hands. We try to stay inside, but we live in a very crowded city… not everybody is staying home.”

“Hmm, maybe I can help with that,” said Ario. “They can’t see the coronavirus, but… they can see me! Jump on, but please sit on both sides of my wings – they are at least one metre apart!”

Characters:
Who did they meet?

Plot:
What did they say/ What happened?

Problem:
What problem did the character face?

Solution:
How did they solve the problem?

Grammar items and language used in the story

The simple past tense to write about things that happened:

6. Writing task:

Sara and Ario visited Hong Kong one night. Write about one of the scenes below and include the following:

- problems people faced during the COVID-19 pandemic, and
- share your advice / positive message with the people you met and help them fight COVID-19.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>at your school</th>
<th>at a park</th>
<th>in a hospital</th>
<th>in a restaurant</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Last night, I could not sleep well. I kept thinking about Ario and Sara because

I needed their help.
Finally, I thanked them for the unforgettable journey.

After writing

Read the individual writing again and complete the self-assessment checklist.

Did I do the following?
(Please tick “✓” the box if you did it.)
