Background	This Government-funded course is approved by the Education Bureau (EDB). Schools which release teachers undertaking this course may apply for supply teachers. For details, please refer to EDB Circular Memorandum No.130/2008 on 'Claim Forms for Daily-Rated Supply Teacher / Non-Teacher Staff, Substitute Teacher Grant, Teacher Relief Grant (Optional Cash Grant) and Substitute Nurse Grant' (Please click here) and reference on 'Teacher Relief Grant' on EDB Homepage (Please click here). For enquiries, please contact the respective Regional Education Office of the EDB.
Objective(s)	The programme aims to help participants to develop specialised knowledge and classroom skills required to teach their content subjects effectively through English.

In order to achieve this, participants will develop:

- an informed understanding of the background to, rationale for and principles underlying English medium education in Hong Kong;
- an informed understanding of the role of language in learning;
- an enhanced knowledge of the English language system and awareness of how the system is used to make meaning;
- a preliminary understanding of how their own subject content is manifested in curriculum materials and classroom discourse in English; and
- an informed awareness of a range of strategies for the effective planning and classroom teaching and learning of their subjects through English.
